

‘Welcoming the Stranger’

A Tri-Cities Community Vigil in Support of Refugees Worldwide

6 PM - December 18, 2015

Ingathering (Flute: ‘Sanctuary’ R. Carlos Nakai)

Welcome - The Reverend Doak M Mansfield

Blessing - Rex Buck, Jr, Wanapum Heritage Center

The Crisis - Scott Michael, World Relief of the Tri-Cities

Witness - Brisa Guajardo

The Possibilities - Tom Roach, Immigration Attorney

Witness – Mohamed Bagi

Rite of Solidarity - A Candle Lighting

Song - ‘Circle Round for Freedom’ led by Shannon & Mike Truex

Thank you for participating in our observance. Please wear the brown ribbon for 3 days. Tell others it represents your concern & the refugees’ story: the soil of former homeland and the new soil of hope of a new home. As you leave tonight please accept a seedling from us to replant as a reminder of love’s gifts.

Your donations tonight will be shared with World Relief of the Tri-Cities for support of their initiatives in support of refugees.

COMMUNITY UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST CHURCH of THE TRI-CITIES
2819 W. Sylvester St Pasco, Washington 99301